Spot 2:

Jesus commanded his disciples to go forth and preach the Gospel to all nations. This they did, in word and in deed. More recently, the Second Vatican Council reaffirmed every Catholic's role in this Great Commission.

In answer to this call, St. Paul Street Evangelization has developed a unique, non-confrontational approach to this mandate, loosely modeled after the modern pro-life movement.

We aren't like many other evangelists that are pushy and in your face. We don't stand and yell on street corners or force anyone to listen to us if they don't want to. Instead, St. Paul Street Evangelization is committed to presenting a positive, passionately Catholic, and non-confrontational presence to a world hungry for the truth.
