RE: Saint Paul Street Evangelization

I have recently been introduced to some members of the Saint Paul Street Evangelization team and I am pleased to write in support of their mission and method.

I find among the young a zeal for the faith and a willingness to share it in an engaging fashion even when met with some degree of rejection and even hostility. I can only identify this as a fearless zeal. I am repeatedly edified by the zeal of our young people and the souls affiliated with Saint Paul Street Evangelization exemplify that zeal. I pray that their number increases, that their zeal remains unabated and that they receive a warm welcome in our parishes, communities, institutions and most especially in our streets.

I pray that God continue to shower every good grace and blessing upon you and upon all those affiliated with Saint Paul Street Evangelization.

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,
